INTRODUCTION

Anna Giorgi - Director of UNIMONT Centre, President of the Bachelor's Degree in Conservation and Sustainable Development of Mountain Areas and President of the Master's Degree in Valorization and Sustainable Development of Mountain Areas

Angela Bassoli - Associate Professor, Department of Food, Environmental and Nutritional Sciences of University of Milan

RELATOR

Joseph Lentunyoi - director of LPC Permaculture center in Laikipia, Kenya

CONTENTS

LPC- Laikipia Permaculture Centre is a Community based trust in an internal region of Kenya, at the slopes of mount Kenya. It was founded in 2014 as a partnership of four women groups from Laikipia North region, followed later by other individuals and groups from local agricultural and pastoral communities. The seminar will report the results of projects realized in collaboration with local and international partners, in supporting regenerative agroforestry, climate resilience, small farming solutions and the improvement of local agrifood production, with the aim to protect natural resources and improve the communities' sustainable development.
